

DigitalCrafts Portfolio Database

Last updated: 11/21/2017

Below is the DigitalCrafts Portfolio Database: a comprehensive list of all the portfolios from previous cohorts. We have also included some examples of good GitHub readme files. We've tried to note those with exceptionally interesting features, but we encourage browsing through them all to get inspiration for your own portfolio. This is updated as we do portfolio reviews: If for any reason you'd rather not share your portfolio with your peers, just send a message to Jake or Katy.

Of course, don't forget that there are detailed Portfolio Guidelines in the Career Support Toolkit. Make sure you check these out as well!

Note: Not everyone chooses to keep up with their portfolio after they graduate and get a job. For this reason, some of these links may not work. Please let us know if you encounter one of these issues so we can remove the portfolio from the list.

Top examples

- Julie Dyer: <http://juliemdyer.com/>
 - Includes more projects than we suggest, but she chose her best one to be a "featured project" and made a video of it, which is a good way to deal w/ wanting to include more projects.
 - Includes video demo
- Nat Ventura: <http://nat-ventura.net/>
 - Excellent! One of the top portfolios I've seen.
 - Check out the feature in the Skills section: When you hover over a skill you a little blurb about her experience with it.
 - Includes video demo
- Katie Lane: <http://katherinelane11.com/>
 - Comprehensive Skills section (w/ ability to click on examples of where she used the skills)
 - Contact icons sticky on the side
 - Includes video demo
- Tom Dostillio: www.thomasdostillio.com
 - Note: More than recommended number of projects, so he added a Featured Project section
- Will Clark: <http://williamclarkelliott.com/>

- Very well done/professional
- Gifs for project thumbnails
- Sarah Abbey: <http://sabbey37.com/>
 - Nice Skills section: Each skills icon is a link to info about that technology
- Merilee Wheelock: <http://www.merileewheelock.com/>
 - Note: takes a little time to load b/c of large/high-res images
- Aaron Sosa: <http://aarontsosa.com/>
- Chad McKee <http://wchadmckee.com/>
- Drew Tolliver <http://iamdrewt.net/>
- Yingrong Zhao: <http://www.yingrongzhao.com/>
- Monis Rizvi: <http://www.monisrizvi.com>
- Carolyn Daniel: <http://www.carolynsdaniel.com>

Creative

- Jonathan Melin: <http://jonathanmelin.com>
 - Interactive animation!
- James Marion: <http://jamesmarion.net/>
 - He drew all his own art/including skills icons!
